

Career Guide Q&A

Nursing education and training

Job Description

A Nursing professional provides patient care, supports doctors, and promotes health through nursing education and practice.

What are the key job roles?

- Provide patient care and basic treatment
- Assist doctors and senior nurses
- Educate patients on health practices
- Maintain medical records

Key Skills Needed

- Compassion and patience
- Communication and teamwork
- Clinical and technical skills
- Problem-solving and decision-making

What qualifications are required?

Entry Qualification for the Job

G.C.E. (A/L) in Science stream or
NVQ Level 4 in Healthcare/Nursing
Assistant
Good literacy and numeracy skills

What are the career pathways and progression opportunities?

Specialized Nurse

Matron

Trainer

Nursing Officer

Senior Nurse

Staff Nurse

Work Ethics

- Primary Commitment
- Advocacy and Protection
- Accountability and Responsibility
- Self-Care and Professional Growth
- Creating an Ethical Work Environment
- Justice and Fairness healthcare delivery.
- sensitive to cultural differences.

(Salaries depend on skills and experience.)

What is the working Environment like?

- Hospitals
- Government private
- Nursing schools
- training centers
- Elder care homes
- community health centers
- NGOs
- Health organizations

Monthly Salary

Monthly Salary (Sri Lanka)
LKR 55,000 – 100,000

(higher with government service, seniority, or overseas opportunities)

In local depend on depend on sector and experience

Ready to start Your Future?

For More Information
Gayan Somarathna

Vocational Training Authority

District Office,
Inamaluwa

066 22 86 683/071 4481356

www.careerone.gov.lk

